

I know many of you will be gone this summer with different trips and vacation dates, so please check your date right away to see if your family will be at church the date you're assigned. If not, please let me know ahead of time, so we can find a replacement and list the right person in the newsletter and bulletin. Thank you!

If you are a bit nervous about doing it by yourself, you may always invite one of the others to acolyte with you. Just let me know!

Remember to please use the restroom before you put on your robe, and meet at the acolyte closet at 10:50 AM.
